Description of Course:

A three-day seminar organized around the study of the three branches of state government. History and political scientists will present background content information. Attending teachers will also learn how government functions under our democratic principles from government officials and practitioners. Program sessions are designed to help participants understand the operation and interaction of our three branches of government in a manner that will bring textbook flow charts and diagrams to life. In addition to delivering content information, the seminar includes demonstrations of teaching activities and materials that will enable teachers to transfer information to the classroom. Programs and activities to encourage student civic participation will be discussed.

Location of Course: Capitol Education Center, Atlanta

Dates of Course: June 23 –25, 2008

I hereby approve this person's participation in the above named Professional Learning Unit Credit Program. I further certify that the goals and objectives of this course are consistent with the goals and improvement objectives of this school system.
